

Newsletter – August 2022

Guest Lecture - Research & Innovation as a Medical Trainee: Challenges and Opportunities:

SCOPE organized a lecture on “Research & Innovation as a Medical Trainee: Challenges and Opportunities” by Dr. Irbaz Bin Riaz, Researcher, Harvard Medical School (USA). Dr. Riaz shared his experience and motivate the participants to take part in the research activities and publish as much as they can.

Pre-Conference Workshop - How to deliver great presentations:

Shifa Center of Professional Excellence (SCOPE) organized a pre-conference workshop of 15th ANRD on the important topic of How to deliver great presentations.

Dr. Farooq Azam Rathore (Consultant and Associate Professor, AFIRM, Rawalpindi) has discussed the key elements of Presentations to remove the embarrassment which students has to face while presenting at a big platform and Dr. Sahibzada Nasir Mansoor, (Consultant and Head of Department, Rehabilitation Medicine, Combined Military Hospital (CMH), Okara, Pakistan has discussed the pattern and rules to design a professional presentation.

15th Annual Neurology Research Day:

Every year Annual Neurology Research Day provides the platform for Medical Students, Residents and Allied Health Sciences to present their research work nationally.

Shifa Center of Professional Excellence (SCOPE) organized 15th Annual Neurology Research Day in collaboration with Department of Neurology, SIH on Saturday, 27th August in Margala Hotel, Islamabad.

Dr. Azhar Saeed (Consultant Neurologist, Shifa International Hospitals Ltd, Islamabad) shared the initiative taken 15 years back for the newcomers to present their research work on a national platform.

Dr. Kaysar Mamun, Keynote Speaker, gave the tips regarding “Engaging in Research as Building Clinician: Rewards & Hurdles”.

Basic Life Support Courses:

Shifa LiST Center (AHA Accredited International Training Center), organized the Basic Life Support Courses.

These courses were attended by the healthcare providers (doctors and nurses) to enhance patient care by imparting critical Emergency Cardiovascular Care (ECC) and Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) education at the highest standards.